Education Oversight Committee reports on progress toward state's goals

This week the South Carolina Education Oversight Committee released its report on South Carolina's effort to reach the 2010 goal of being ranked in the top half of states nationally. To read more, visit: <http://www.ed.sc.gov/news/more.cfm?articleID=882>

Rex says we must do more quickly

State Superintendent of Education Jim Rex said that a new report by the South Carolina's Education Oversight Committee shows progress by the state's public schools, but not enough to reach the goal of being ranked in the top half of the nation by 2010.
